NJ Paranormal Investigators at Work!

Join the Friends of Abraham Staats House and the New Jersey Paranormal Investigators (NJPI) for a night of revealing what NJPI has discovered from several paranormal investigations of this historic home. You will explore the grounds where the Revolutionary War soldiers walked. Some have said they've "felt something" but did the spirits cooperate and reveal themselves? NJPI investigators will present their findings and after, participants will break into groups to explore with NJPI's investigative equipment. (Equipment is limited. It would be appreciated if you would bring your own equipment if you have it.) Space is limited to 60 people.
